

RESONANCE HEALTH LIMITED

Board Charter

1. Introduction

- 1.1 In carrying out its responsibilities and exercising its powers, the Board at all times recognises its overriding responsibility to act honestly, fairly, diligently and in accordance with the law in serving the interests of the shareholders of Resonance Health Limited (the Company), as well as its employees, customers, and the community. It works to promote and maintain an environment within the Company that establishes these principles as basic guidelines for all of its employees and representatives at all times.

2. Purpose

This document summarises the role, responsibilities, policies and processes of the Board of Resonance Health Limited and comments on the Board's approach to corporate governance.

3. Role

The Board is the governing body of the Company. The Board and the Company act within a statutory framework – principally the Corporations Act and also the Constitution of the Company. Subject to this statutory framework, the Board has the authority and the responsibility to perform the functions, determine the policies and control the affairs of Resonance Health Limited.

The Board must ensure that Resonance Health Limited acts in accordance with prudent commercial principles, and satisfies shareholders – consistent with maximising the Company's long term value.

3.1 The Board is responsible for:

- (a) charting the direction, strategies and financial objectives of the Company and ensuring appropriate resources are available;
- (b) monitoring the implementation of those policies and strategies and the achievement of those financial objectives;
- (c) monitoring compliance with control and accountability systems, regulatory requirements and ethical standards;
- (d) ensuring the preparation of accurate financial reports and statements;

- 6.2 For the purpose of this Section 6,
- (a) "principal" does not include a non-executive Director;
  - (b) "material professional adviser" does not include a professional adviser providing less than 25% of professional advisory services of a same or similar nature to the company and its group members; and
  - (c) the guidelines contained in Australian Accounting Standard AASB 1031 "Materiality" are followed in determining whether a supplier or customer is a "material supplier or customer".

7. Meetings

- 7.1 Board and committee papers are provided to Directors, where possible, five days prior to the relevant meeting.
- 7.2 The non-executive Directors meet at least twice each year for private discussion of management issues.

8. Board Committees

- 8.1 The Board from time to time establishes committees to assist it in carrying out its responsibilities, and adopts charters setting out matters relevant to the composition, responsibilities and administration of such committees, and other matters that the Board may consider appropriate.

9. The Chairman

- 9.1 The Directors elect one of their number to the office of Chairman and may determine the period for which that Director is to be Chairman.
- 9.2 The Chairman presides over meetings of the Board and general meetings of shareholders.

9. The Chairman Cont'd

9.3 The Chairman is responsible for the integrity of the Board process and the functioning of the Board. This contrasts with the role of the Chief Executive Officer which is responsible for the functioning of the organisation, and the Company Secretary, who is responsible for the integrity of Board documents.

10. The Chief Executive Officer

10.1 The Chief Executive Officer's duties are to:

- (a) devote the whole of his or her time, attention and skill during normal business hours and at other times as reasonably necessary, to the duties of the office;
- (b) be accountable for planning, coordinating and directing the operations of the Company to achieve strategic, financial and operating objectives as agreed with the Board;
- (c) formulate and recommend business and financial strategies and plans to develop the Company's business and to implement these plans to achieve agreed performance targets;
- (d) promote the interests of the Company; and
- (e) faithfully and diligently perform the duties and exercise the powers:
  - i. consistent with the position of a Chief Executive Officer of the Company; and
  - ii. assigned by the board.

10.2 In fulfilling his or her duties, the Chief Executive Officer:

- (a) reports directly to the Board;
- (b) provides prompt and full information to the Board regarding the conduct of the business of the Company; and
- (c) complies with reasonable directions given by the Board.

11. The Company Secretary

11.1 The Company Secretary supports the effectiveness of the Board by:

- (a) monitoring that Board policy and procedures are followed; and

11. The Company Secretary Cont'd

- (b) co-ordinating the completion and despatch of Board agendas and Board information packs.

11.2 The Company Secretary is responsible to the Board, through the Chairman, on all governance matters.

12. Self Assessment

12.1 The Board undertakes an annual performance evaluation of itself that:

- (a) compares the performance of the Board with the requirements of its Charter; and
- (b) effects any improvements to the Board Charter deemed necessary or desirable.

12.2 The performance evaluation is conducted in such manner as the Board deems appropriate.

13. Appointment

13.1 Letters of appointment for each new appointment to the Board set out the key terms and conditions relative to the appointment.

14. Term of Office

14.1 Directors are appointed for terms not exceeding three years but are eligible for reappointment. Directors appointed during the year are required to have their appointment confirmed by the shareholders in general meeting.

14.2 There is no maximum age for Directors.

15. Commitment

15.1 The commitment required by Non-executive directors in order to fulfil their obligations to the Board is expected to be the equivalent of approximately 25 days per year.
